

OBSERVER'S NOTES

Let it be hopeful words you use, This bright morning in May; So to express the thoughts you choose, To drive gloom clouds away. Tell all about the perfect good Outnumbering the bad, If we would see it as we should, Counting blessings we've had. Go forth and do your very best, God and His sunshine do the rest.

There it is in a nut shell—if we only do our part, God and His sunshine never fail. You all know children who are ungrateful for the countless good things their parents provide for them; they always want something more. Like that are we ungrateful children of the Heavenly Father. In our eagerness to ask for more, we too often forget all our benefits.

If all the pulses in me, were drum beats and joybells ringing; if every breath was stirring acolian harps of praise; all the unexpressed music of my soul voicing anthems of Thanksgiving, so would I thank God for the return of spring time. The miracle of it is just as wonderful at 80 as at 20. The amazing beauty just as blessed.

So many pleasant things have come crowding into this week in May. One came May 1, when a little fairy came tripping in holding out O, such a pretty May basket with all the pretty early flowers in it. It was little Annie. It was one May day long time ago, her father and his little sister brought my first May basket to hang on my door. How can we whine and grouse over losses and crosses when spring and May-like friends are ever with us?

Then there came to us to do a bit of long needed work too heavy for lame hands to do—a man who really works, and works well, for far less wages than we have paid to those who "soldiered" on the job. Dare not tell who he is, or you would all be after him, and we do need him to help us a day or two before "you all" chase him out of town with over work.

No use going west to find jobs. We hear they are cutting wages out there as well as here. Better as Hamlet said, "To bide the ills we now endure than fly to those we wot not of" and still the Robin finds the worm; and Mrs. Raoul Peeters' father says there are yet fine fish in McCullum Lake where she has a summer home.

Long time ago as now they say, "Away back when," Two bright young lads I used to know. Called Willie and Ben; Somehow I missed them from the way.

When all at once the other day, Came one of our bright young men, Said he once called him "Bennie." Now grown to hold his own with any; The same kind smile as "Way back when."

Yes, it was the same as little "Bennie" Pitson as when his brother, Willie, led him into the "Little Room" in the Presbyterian Sunday school several years ago. It was pleasant to see him again, and to learn that he is working for the old North Western. Willie is well and has boys of his own. It always touches the heart of me to meet those one time children, now men and women taking their places in the world of work and worry. They are ever dear to me, and may God bless and keep them close to Him.

Put one of these bright golden dandelions by the side of a crocus, and tell me which is the more beautiful of the two. The green velvet lawn dotted all over with these shining blossoms, is a regular orgy of blossom time. The best of it is while you are taking up tulip and crocus bulbs to plant and replant, the dandelion sits by in all its golden glory and smiles. O, you can bank on the dandelions! Here they come! True to color, Brightest blossom on your border, Boasting his "nine points of law," ready to possess the land.

We talk about hygiene and diet by the hour, yet we steer shy of the harm those horrible high heels are doing for the girls and women of our time. Two bright little school girls said to me last year: "Would you believe it, our teacher wears heels four inches high?" No wonder our women have internal ailments and displacements. A Swedish woman doctor attending a convention of women doctors in the East, said, she was amazed at the high heels women here wore, even the doctors. Why did they never warm women of the harm they did?

You know that pretty girl you see On heels four inches high; Strain and misplace anatomy, Please, doctor, tell her why!

Her cheeks a rose pink without taint, Her lips a coral red; Why will she spoil it all with paint, Vulgar and crude, instead? O, pretty maids, charming bright, Do you ever suppose Paint could improve the lilies white? Or beautify the rose?

O, don't blame Observer, and don't blame the printer, not even the make-up man for bad breaks and mix-ups which occur even in the "high up" publications. Here is one from a Virginia publication of high repute: "Gordon Hilbert has been removed to his home, here, from Rockingham Memorial hospital, where he was recently operated on for a snow storm that blocked the way on all the roads." Harrisonburg (Va.) Daily News Record.

What I desire to say, is in a paragraph in a recent appearance of these notes, I spoke of the matter brought before the Board by our Stonegate neighbors protesting against a nuisance someone was about to bring into their borders. I said we should do all in our power to protest against anything that would annoy our Stonegate neighbors, our beautiful new addition, our "doorstep child" of which we were proud. Using a term sometimes applied to the surprise of finding a child on our door step. So were we surprised to waken one morning to find this beautiful new city of Stonegate ready to become a child of Old Arlington Heights.

No, there is no "stepchild" in it, nor will there be if we see to it that Arlington Heights does her duty toward our latest adoption, our new member on the east who should be shielded from anything that would mar her beauty or threaten her safety and peace. For any mistake, or misunderstanding, beg pardon, sincerely. And would dare to suggest that when another vacancy occurs on the Village Board we see to it that Stonegate has a representative.

Do you realize that some of our best citizens are hiding away from their old friends because of reverses in fortune? Some of us know the agony of their positions. That old "Sweet are the uses of adversity" reads well, but is it sweet enough to give you dyspepsia in the trout. Women happy in the care of their own homes now obliged to do the hardest work for others. There is no such thing as menial work, yet those who value only money values do not know that all honest labor is honorable.

Think of these who do not find financial loss conducive to sweetness of mind.

How thankful we are that the evening and the morning were the first day and no matter how sleepless and restless the night, morning dawns to drive away the shadows and the haunting memories. Think of those less favored than yourself and be kind.

In the night the heart Feels the stress of things; Feels the poisoned dart, Harried from yester's wings, While the hot tears start Over words like stings.

In the night the heart, As the pendulum swings, Feels the ache and smart Of the hurt that clings, Dreads with throbbing start Hurts tomorrow brings.

In the night, the heart Bears the ache of things. Morning O, the magic of the morn, With its whirl of wings; Leaps the heart new born, When the dawnbird sings; Hides the hurting tendrils torn; Off its burden flings.

Thank God for the magic morn Healing hearts with hope new-born. Defiant meet its sting. O, come with me a-maying, Life's midway a mysterious thing; We'll march into the maze of it, To woo and win the ways of it, Though all the world is saying "Wisdom with years takes wing."

O, come with me a-maying, The woods with anthems ring; Where orioles and mock birds flit, And bluebell hedges blow for it; And thorn and crab boughs swaying Their blossom censurs swing.

O, come with me a-maying, Life's evening's a victorious thing; Clothed in the crowning calm of it, Age dreads the darkness not a bit, Beyond the shadows gray, Hail! Hail! Immortal Spring.

In a San-Jose newspaper, we saw the picture of a bright pretty little girl feeding from a bottle a baby puppy, its life saved by the tender hearted little maiden who devised a real baby feeding bottle. In the picture she was feeding her little doggie. Who do you think this little girl was? None other than Katherine Barbara Kealey and namesake of our own Miss K. J. Kealey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Kealey.

Many of us well remember Mr. F. S. Kealey who was one of the most expressive singers we have heard in Arlington Heights, whose wonderful tenor and baritone rendering of sacred music was an inspiration to those who heard him in church, C. E., and Sunday school. Particularly must he be recalled in his part in the Queen Esther cantata. It was through the courtesy of Miss Kealey we saw the San Jose paper and the dear little niece feeding the pet saved by her kindness.

O, come with me a-maying, Life's morning is a joyous thing; We'll breathe the our very fill of it, And find the glorious thrill of it, While youth and hope are straying Where all earth's joybells are ringing.

O, come with me a-maying, Life it is such a fleeting thing; We'll flash into light of it, Bathed in the golden light of it, While pipes of Pan are playing For morn and vouth and spring.

O, come with me a-maying, Where meadow beauties bloom; Where bob-o-links and blue birds flit, And daisies deck the ways of it; Where violets are delaying Till roses spill perfume.

O, come with me a-maying, Life, it is such a gripping thing; We'll rush into the maze of it, And bear the hunt and blame of it, With courage never staying

EASTERN STAR

Matrons and Patrons night Thursday, May 12th furnished another gala page in the history of our chapter and was marked by an attendance which set a record.

Preceded by her officers in collegiate manner Sister Sophie Wilson, W. M. of Palatine Chapter was escorted to the east, which she shared with her own W. P., Bro. Geo. Wilson, and was supported by the following Worthy Matrons and Patrons who filled the various stations: Sister Mary Rugen, Glenview; A. M., Bro. Fred Fleming, Lounsbury; A. P., Bro. Sister Lulu Herrmann, P. M. of Palatine Chapter, who with our own W. M. Sister Alma Tesch, served as conductress of Palatine chapter was escorted to the east and introduced as the guest of honor for the evening.

A surprise was next in store for us as the W. M. invited Sister Celia Hausam, P. M. of Palatine chapter to the east, where she received her commission as Grand Lecturer, this being presented by Sister Bertha Eagles, G. L. After remarks befitting the occasion by Sister Eagles, the Worthy Matron introduced Sister Celia as G. L. and Instructress of our Chapter.

Initiation ceremonies were then held and after remarks by those in the East, Chapter closed and refreshments were partaken of, which climaxed a successful and enjoyable evening.

It is with deep regret, that we must announce that sorrow has again entered our Chapter. On Wednesday, May 12th, the Angel of Death summoned our beloved Sister Eleanor Lange, our Adah, to the Grand Chapter above. Sister Eleanor had submitted to an operation for appendicitis at the Lutheran Memorial hospital, and due to complications following failed to survive.

Funeral services, conducted by our Chapter were held Saturday, May 14th, interment at St. Paul's cemetery at Niles Center, Ill.

Our next stated meeting May 26th.

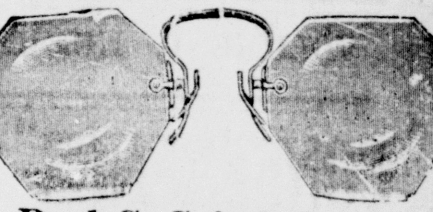

The six bills to strengthen the personal property collection machinery, designed for the relief of Cook county, and already passed by the senate, did not pass in the house during the closing day of the legislative special session which ended on May 3. The house also refused to pass the Dunlap bill extending the date of sale of property for delinquent 1931 taxes from Sept., 1932 to January, 1933.

Arlington School

Scores Triumph in "Sunny of Sunnyside"

"Sunny of Sunnyside," Denison opera, was performed by Arlington Heights 8th grade public school pupils assisted by the north side Seventh grade, in the high school auditorium last Friday night in a manner that called forth highest praise. It was astonishingly good. The child actors threw themselves into their parts with a naturalness, enthusiasm and dash that greatly exceeded what many older pupils and adults have done in this community on occasion. Some outstanding young personalities were revealed, who, if they keep their unspoiled naturalness, may mean much for future dramatic and operetta work in this community.

Miss Fern Lorenzen was both director and accompanist, playing the overtures, and for all solos and choruses. The children showed evidences of extraordinary drilling; and their parts went off almost invariably with snap and energy. There was plenty of individual acting on the stage as well as complicated chorus and dancing work. This was no ordinary school play, but a big production. The chorus singing was good. Wild applause was given, and wonderment was expressed that such a big opera could be put over so well by a grade school.

One reason was that the scene was laid in an orphan asylum, with 23 distinct characters in the cast and no adult parts—all juvenile.

Two ballet acts in costume, a riotously funny impromptu circus and parades were included in this extraordinary performance. The 8th grade class, by their president, Myrtle Thomas, presented Miss Lorenzen with a bouquet of roses in testimony of the "faithful and untiring director of the play." Misses Henning, Hayford, Welch, Sott and Hauley of the teachers, assisted back stage on the night of the play. Ruth Geisel, 6th grade pupil, had a part in the cast, as "Betty, the pet of the Sunnyside orphans."

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dearly beloved son and brother, Edward Winkelman, who passed away one year ago today, April 19, 1931.

Loving and kind in all his ways, Upright and just to the end of his days.

Sincere and true in his heart and mind.

A beautiful memory he left behind. Loving Parents, Brothers and Sisters.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our husband and father, Edward Winkelman, who passed away one year ago May 19, 1931.

Loving and happy in all his ways, Sweet and happy to the end of his days.

Sincere and true in heart and mind. Beautiful memories he left behind. Peacefully sleeping, resting at last. The world's weary troubles and trials are passed.

In silence he suffered, in patience he bore. Till God called him home to suffer no more.

Mrs. Edward Winkelman and Dolores.

She Reduces 38 Pounds The Safe Way

"I have been taking Kruschen Salts for 4 months and I think they are wonderful. I am 32 years old and 5 ft. 2 in. tall. I was very fat. I weighed 165 lbs. and now I weigh 127 lbs. and feel fine. If I let up taking the Salts one morning I feel lazy and heavy." Mrs. Florence Loftus, Boston.

This is just one of hundreds of letters we get every month—Kruschen not only causes you to lose fat but while you are losing it you gain in health—in vivaciousness—you lose fat where fat is most prominent and at the same time keep stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels functioning naturally.

Ferd B. Wendt, or any drugstore in the world will sell you a jar of Kruschen for a trifling sum—take one-half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning—go light on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets. But for your health's sake demand and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous. It's the little daily dose that does it.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Mortals and Immortals" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 15.

The Golden Text was, "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God" (Romans 8:16).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Ye are therefore followers of God, as dear children; For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light" (Ephesians 5:1-8).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Human birth, growth, maturity, and decay are as the grass springing from the soil with beautiful green blades, afterwards to wither and return to its native nothingness. This mortal seeming is temporal; it never merges into immortal being, but finally disappears, and immortal man, spiritual and eternal, is found to be the real man" (p. 190).

LEST WE FORGET — BUSINESS OF WAR

A Memorial Day Meditation

Efforts to discredit and defeat the Disarmament conference at Geneva are reported to come to a considerable extent from manufacturers of arms and munitions of war; whose business would be hurt by peace. It might therefore be well to know and remember what they did during the world war—the following is from a recent number of The Nation:

"The German Krupp needed nickel, and it was furnished by the French nickel syndicate. It was shipped from New Caledonia to Norway and then to Germany. Copper was handled similarly, with participation of the English firm, Vickers. Again, Krupp sold to Vickers a patented fuse, and the British fleet at Skagerrack used optical instruments supplied by German firms during the war. In their Newski works, the Austrian Skoda Works manufactured cannons for Russia. French and British soldiers could die at the Dardanelles with the consolation that arms and munitions manufactured in their own countries brought them a hero's death. For Vickers had supplied the Turk plentifully. During the war, as the French Deputy, Chouffet, reported in the Chamber, the Conference of Explosives Manufacturers of all warring countries worked harmoniously in Switzerland. For many months entire trainloads of chemicals were shipped from southern France to Switzerland, to be returned to France later in the form of phosgene gas for the killing of French soldiers. In January,

1915, 200,000 kilograms of cyanide were shipped from France to Germany. On the other hand, the barbed wire in which thousands of Germans died before Fort Douaumont was furnished one month before the attack by a German firm."

If spies were shot, what ought to be done with those who for financial gain, sold munitions of war to defeat their own nations and kill their own kin?

Joseph Wichtner.

Arlington Heights

Student Honored at State University

In honor of students who have excelled in scholarship during their educational endeavors, the wheels of the University of Illinois came to a standstill for an hour Friday morning for the eighth annual Honors Day program. President Harry Woodburn Chase paid tribute to these outstanding students.

Arlington Heights is among the towns of the state which was represented in the list of those honored, the representative being Edward Carl Wahl, "High Scholarship" class of 1932, College of Education; a graduate of Arlington Heights high school.

In all 852 students have won scholastic honors by meeting the requirements set forth by the University Senate, the educational governing body of the institution, and given recognition for "Superior Scholarship" or "High Scholarship."

The honored students are classified in three ways: First, those whose grades are in the upper 10 per cent of each class are distinguished by "High Scholarship" and are entitled to have their names printed in the Honors Day program. Second, students in the upper three per cent of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes receive special mention as having manifested "Superior Scholarship." Third, those seniors who receive recognition for their junior and senior years earn the right to have their names inscribed on the bronze tablet which is unveiled during the Honors Day convocation.

1915, 200,000 kilograms of cyanide were shipped from France to Germany. On the other hand, the barbed wire in which thousands of Germans died before Fort Douaumont was furnished one month before the attack by a German firm."

If spies were shot, what ought to be done with those who for financial gain, sold munitions of war to defeat their own nations and kill their own kin?

GEO. KLEHM OF NILES CENTER DIES SUDDENLY

Patriotic Citizen and Civil Leader Gone to His Reward

Mr. George H. Klehm, 59, prominent on account of his leadership, in many commendable civic accomplishments, for Niles Center and Cook county, died suddenly Sunday morning, May 15, at 9:15 a. m. at his home, 5144 Oakton street, Niles Center.

In spite of his heart ailment, which hung threateningly over him like the sword of Damocles for the last 20 years, he went on courageously with the many civic and business duties, his active mind prompted him to do. At the time of his death, he was chairman of the board of directors of the Niles Center State Bank and on the directorate of the Irving Park boulevard cemetery. Both organizations will miss his executive assistance, which has been a guidance since their beginning; the bank in 1907, the cemetery in 1920.

Mr. Klehm was born in the old Klehm store, and at the age of 17 years entered into partnership in the general merchandise business there and continued in the same 30 years with his brother, Edwin T. Klehm. Klehm Brothers have always been charitable to the poor, having supplied many needy families with food and clothing, who were never able to repay them. In his later years George has made regular and generous contributions to charitable organizations.

George H. Klehm obtained his elementary education at the old south Niles Center school and was graduated from the 8th grade in 1887 under the tutelage of Prof. W. Dana Smyser, who later became the principal of the Portage Park school, Chicago. This class of 1887 was the first one of rural Cook county to receive high school entrance diplomas. George took a business college course later and then took a position as clerk in a Chicago wholesale shoe house until he entered business as partner in Klehm's store in Niles Center.

Mr. Klehm has been identified with political life of the village since he became 21 years of age when he was elected village trustee, serving four years. He served as clerk of the township nine years, during which time electric lighting and gas were brought to Niles township. He was one of the delegation who went to Michigan to investigate the experiments with concrete for roads and was instrumental with others in having the first "test" mile of concrete road in Cook county, built on Church street in the town of Niles. This same stretch of concrete is still carrying traffic.

The first old Niles Center Fire company disbanded and Mr. Klehm was elected as the first president of the new Niles Center Volunteer Fire company and served in that capacity 11 years.

In 1910 he was elected president of Niles Center to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. George Sintzel. He served 12 years and with the assistance of a good board of trustees, accomplished many things beneficial to the village at a small cost. The village revenue at that time consisted almost solely of the license fees obtained from about nine saloons. There was much to be done and very little to do with. Although urged repeatedly by citizens to run for mayor again, he always declined after having voluntarily terminated his 12 years service.

After the big fire on Lincoln avenue north of Oakton street in 1910, a water system was installed and proved to be more than self paying. The tedious task of getting for the village the first sewage connection with the drainage canal was accomplished after two years of persistent efforts with the assistance of the trustees and other public spirited men.

During his administration the Lincoln avenue concrete road was laid from the city limits at Devon avenue through Niles Center to Morton Grove. Before this could be done the Tice law for good roads had to be amended by the legislature, so as to permit a permanent road to be built through an incorporated village or city. The paving of Lincoln avenue lifted Niles Center out of a rut and pulled it out of the mud.

Through his close acquaintance with members of the Cook County Board, he was able to get much sorely needed help from them for Niles Township roads and other improvements.

He was an organizer and was elected the first president of the Niles Center local of the Cook County Truck Gardener's association.

In his younger days he was pitcher for the Niles Center baseball team and their nine was champion of Northern Cook county. He was fond of boxing and horse racing. Saturday his first and last day at the new Sportsman Race track, on account of the intense heat, probably hastened his death.

His travels took him into practically every state in the Union, Alaska, Canada, Mexico and the West Indies, and many times to Europe. These trips were not only taken for pleasure, but for education and relaxation from the strenuous demands of business life.

After all his travels, he was always welcomed to the home of his brother, Edwin, with whom he lived over 40 years, and there he died in the arms of his loving relatives. His genial personality and honesty of purpose, blessed him with many friends, who came by the hundreds, to pay their last respects to his memory, at his home and at his church, where he received his religious instruction.

A week before his death, he renewed his membership at the altar, with 30 others, who had been confirmed there and joined celebrating the 65th anniversary of the founding of the church, of which his father was a charter member. Sunday morning he had planned to go to communion and had arisen a little earlier than usual. He was cheerful as he approached the breakfast table with his niece, Pearl, following him into the dining room. She noticed him lean forward slightly, and then suddenly, without the slightest warning, slumped to the floor at her feet, unconscious. All attempts to revive him failed.

George H. Klehm, beloved son of the late George C. and Eliza Klehm, dear brother of Mrs. Emma H. Harter, Edwin T., Mrs. Lydia J. Harms, Dr. A. Louise, Alma E., Mrs. Florence Freund, Herbert L., Harold W., and Raymond C. Member of Morton Grove Lodge No. 1146 A. F. & A. M., and Lake Shore Athletic club.

The funeral was held Wednesday, 2:30 from late residence, 5144 Oakton street, Niles Center to St. Peter's Evangelical church. Masonic services at St. Peter's Evangelical cemetery.

Honorary Pall Bearers: Samuel Meyer, Peter Hoffman, Peter Kirsch, William Schnur, Albert Lies, August Poehlman, Adam Harter, George Landeck, John Dilg, George Mittelstaedt.

Active Pall Bearers: William J. Galitz, Robert F. Hoffmann, Henry Loutsch, John E. Brown, Fred Stielow, Henry Dilg.

St. Peter's Evang. Church was crowded to overflowing by the many friends of the deceased, who came to pay tribute to his life and memory. The flag on the municipal building was flown at half mast to show the sorrow of his departure. The village police escorted the procession to the cemetery, where the Masonic fraternities conducted the burial service.

SEVEN HUNDRED ATTEND SCOUT RALLY

Three hundred scouts and four hundred visitors attended the annual spring rally of the Northwest Suburban Council at Lions Park, north of Des Plaines Saturday. The 12-hour program fulfilled every expectation of those who assembled to witness the various events ranging from kite flying in the morning, through a program of scouting activities during the afternoon and closing with a great campfire program in the evening.

One of the most spectacular features of the day was the retreat ceremony in which every scout participated. The colors were lowered at 6 o'clock to the tune of "To the colors" played by the bugler while all saluted. The ribbons and awards were then presented to the representatives of the winning troops by Thomas M. Whitson, president of the local scout council, and the scouts then passed in review before their scoutmasters and the council officers.

CAMPFIRE PROGRAM HAS INDIAN SETTING

The camp fire program was given a real Indian atmosphere by a group of Kenosha scouts representing the Indian Camp at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta, who appeared with their leaders, Howard Gately, camp director, and Errol Evans, director of the Indian camp, in full Indian regalia. An impressive fire-lighting ceremony and a number of Indian dances interspersed with songs were their contribution to the program. Camp songs, a harmonica contest and the presentation of attendance awards were also interesting features.

Mount Prospect 100 Per Cent

Troop 23, of Mt. Prospect, American Legion, had 100 per cent attendance at the rally, exceeding that of any other troop in the council. They also won first place for fancy kites (Edwin Parks); third in flannick cooking (Lawrence Lee); tied for second place in the Signal Tower race; were second in the dressing and undressing race; and third in the leap frog relay.

Scout Council Heads Plan Work

Among the many important matters discussed and acted upon at the regular meeting of the Executive Board of the Northwest Suburban Council last Monday evening in the Pickwick club rooms in Park Ridge, was the appointment of a special committee, with former president of the council, A. L. Webster as chairman, to make a special study of the financial program of the council and develop plans for emergency action. Mr. Webster will select his own committee. Reports were received from the chairmen of standing committees which showed continued progress in many respects. District committee chairmen also reported on the work of the six districts of the council. Folders announcing the program for Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta for the coming summer were distributed and discussed. The next meeting of this group will be in connection with a mid-year council meeting to be held at the camp July 13. President of the Council, T. M. Whitson, presided over last Monday's session.

New Weeds Appear In Illinois Fields

Springfield.—The state department of agriculture has issued a warning concerning the appearance, and the rapid spread, within the past three years, of four relatively new and decidedly obnoxious weeds, commonly called "Orange Hawkweed," "Rough Bedstraw," "Winter Cress," and "Downy Bromegrass." Seed authorities in the division of plant industry urge vigorous action to eradicate these weeds, wherever found, before they gain a foothold in cultivated fields and pastures. Efforts are underway to acquaint the farming public with the appearance of these plants in order that they may be identified upon their first appearance.

New Holy Name Technical School To Be Dedicated

Formal dedication of the new Holy Name Technical school for the training of underprivileged boys in aviation and other technical trades will be held Memorial Day at the school site near Lockport, according to an announcement by the Rt. Rev. B. J. Sheil, D. D., of the Chicago Archdiocese, in charge of the arrangements.

The dedicatory ceremonies, it is announced, will mark a very large gathering of Catholic clergy and laymen in the Chicago area.

Cardinal Mundelein will dedicate the new school, assisted by Bishop Sheil and other prelates and dignitaries of the church. Ceremonies will be participated in by various Catholic organizations, including the Holy Name society, Archdiocesan Union of Chicago, which has pledged itself to erect and maintain the new institution; the Council of Catholic women; the Knights of Columbus; Daughters of Isabella; the Catholic Youth organizations; and the Catholic Boy Scouts. Festivities of the dedication will be addressed by prominent laymen and clergy, special religious services, and a review of the Boy Scouts by the Cardinal and distinguished visitors.

Since the announcement of the establishment of this great new aviation school recently, word has come to sponsors of the project from the Army and Navy departments and Government officials at Washington, D. C., commending the project and the Holy Name society for "its important contribution to the science of aviation," and for providing an opportunity for the training of underprivileged boys whose mechanical genius might otherwise remain undiscovered.

When completed, sponsors of the school announced, the institution will occupy 150 acres of ground on the Chicago and Joliet road, near the town of Lockport.

According to Joe W. McCarthy, architect in charge, school buildings will consist of some twelve structures, all in the colonial style of architecture, with the exception of the aviation hangar, already completed, and will be constructed of face brick and Bedford stone. The main building will consist of administration and faculty headquarters. To the rear of this, on the main axis, will be the chapel. Two dormitories will flank the headquarters building, while to the northwest and southwest of the main building will be the various shops and the greenhouse, the aviation hangar, gymnasium, and special classroom buildings, equipped with shops. The power house and laundry will be erected directly west of the administration building.

New Goodyear Airwheel Tires Equipment Ready For 15 Makes of Cars

Akron, Ohio.—Fifteen of the popular models of automobiles can now be fitted with the new Goodyear Airwheel tires, those big, pillow-like balloons which make automobiles look and feel as though they were riding on comfortable rubber donkeys.

The announcement, made by Goodyear engineers, says that the size range includes a choice of four sizes: 6.50-16; 6.70-17; 6.75-15 and 6.90-18 and six widths, with the new Silent Air-Wheeling Tread design which eliminates hum or rumble.

Air pressure in the new tires varies with the weight of the car and the size of the tire used. On the 6.50-16, for instance, the pressure is from 18 to 25 pounds of air. In the other sizes, the pressure ranges from 16 to 32 pounds with more air for heavier cars.

Made up in complete units of Airwheel tires, tubes and discs the new equipment is ready to ship on the basis of these 15 models of cars.

Cars equipped with Airwheel tires are easy to steer, quick to turn, and the car is low-swing and close to the road because the rolling radius is practically identical with the ground sizes of balloon tires.

This new Airwheel is a direct development of the same tire that Goodyear introduced into aviation some years ago which revolutionized the tire equipment for airplanes. Airwheel tires for automobiles have been developed by the company for the past two years and were first placed on the market last August.

An interesting comparison of the development of larger cross sectional tire diameters with a corresponding decrease in wheel sizes is shown in the accompanying size table, of tires used on small cars.

Bells on Shipboard

Ships' bells are said to date from the period when the hour glass was used to indicate the passage of time. The glass was empty every half-hour and had to be turned over, the ship's bell being struck to mark the time. At present bells are the signals for a change in the watch.

Long Grove Defeats Chicago West Side Aces, Score 5 to 2

Long Grove's second game of the season was a victory, the opponents giving them plenty of competition for the early season, but that's the way the Grove boys like them.

The score was a tie of 2-2 up until the 6th inning, which looked as if something ought to be done as far as Long Grove was concerned. So in the home half of the inning with Joe Gahlbeck, roosting on third base, stealing all the way, and Al Hahnfeldt in second, with two out, two strikes on the batter, score tie 2-2, Jim, figuring to get them two runs home gets up from sitting position and calls to the pitcher to let him see the ball. The big hearted opposing pitcher, naturally delivered the ball to Jim, the latter side stepped, to let the ball go through, and called for his brother Joe to come home, which he did; but Hahnfeldt got jealous and scored also, making the score 4-2. That ended things for a while, which would have led the boys to leave for Chicago, but to their surprise Blumer Haseman, manager of Long Grove team, and also first baseman, decided to give the Aces a big break and put the boys on bases again so the Grove would be finished. But again to their surprise the batter with two strikes on him banged one out to score again those same two runs, to prove to the Aces it could be done.

Finally in the latter innings they scored another to make it a total of five to the Aces two. The Aces parading around Jim the rest of the game, awarded him with about 100 or more nicknames which of course were expected, but were given no attention.

They had it in for the Bean ball pitcher as it was, for they found it hard to connect with the ball which he delivered without much effort. His strike outs totaling 11, Jim spraining his ankle on the last pitch, which struck out one of the Aces in the seventh, led them to think that he was finished, but, Red Holste (catcher) giving it a yank which almost jerked Jim off the ground brought a moan, followed by smiles, and then to the mound again, striking them out as before.

So don't forget, fans, it's worth your time to see these Grove fellows handle their men. Especially Sunday, May 22, when they play Cary at Cary. Everybody out to see Long Grove trim Cary as Barrington did.

Pike Fry Released In Illinois Streams

Springfield.—Pike eggs—250 quarts of them, obtained after much difficulty by Ralph F. Bradford, director of the state department of conservation, and hatched at the Spring Grove hatchery of the department, have produced 35,000,000 pike fry, to be released in lakes and streams of Illinois. The difficult undertaking of hatching pike, Director Bradford stated, had succeeded to an extent far beyond the department's expectations.

HOME FIRES are burning brighter

THEY SANG IT in the Argonne, on Broadway and on every Main Street. Keep the Home Fires Burning was a war song with a universal appeal. It is still being sung today. In effect, it seems to have become a sort of "theme song" for our new habits of living.

During the last decade home fires have had their ups and downs. For a while, in 1928 and 1929, they smoldered—when families seemed bound to buy all their entertainment in public places. Not so today. Home fires have been rekindled. They are burning even brighter than during the war. It is a peacetime paradox.

The evidence is everywhere. Parlor games are popular again. Drab basements are being fitted out as "rumpus rooms" for ping-pong, for billiards and other excitements. More books are being taken from libraries. The demand for amusements outside the home is falling off.

Most of us have rediscovered our homes as headquarters for fun, for entertainment. Probably this is true in your own case. Probably you're getting quite a kick out of the change, too.

And we are likely to forget that all this new activity in the home means burning more lights in the evening—and longer evenings. That it means more meals to be cooked—more dishes to wash. Naturally if you're spending more time at home, you're using more gas and electricity.

But even if your bills for these services are slightly higher than they used to be, these evenings are costing less than they would if you were buying your entertainment outside. And it is a matter of record that, in spite of this back-to-the-home movement, many bills for gas and electricity are now lower than ever before. Because of recent reductions in rates, almost $2,000,000 has been saved by families in northern Illinois during the last 18 months. PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS.

THEATRE SHOWS FOR NEXT WEEK

Betty Compton on Stage; "Miracle Man," Paradise

On the Paradise stage—Betty Compton, lovely blonde Hollywood star singing and dancing in her own stage show. Also 10 big acts in "Star Night" with talented performers giving amazing impressions of movie stars. On the screen—"The Miracle Man," one of the most powerful and dramatic pictures of the year with Sylvia Sydney, Chester Morris, John Wray, Hobart Bosworth, Irving Pichel, Bobby Coogan and Lloyd Hughes.

"Zombie"—Stage; Colbert on Screen

On the stage—the weird chilling mystery thriller, "Zombie," now at popular prices with the original cast headed by the screen star Pauline Starke. Last week in Chicago. On the screen—"Misleading Lady," a delicious, fast moving comedy with luscious Claudette Colbert in the leading role, admirably supported by Edmund Lowe and Stuart Erwin.

"This Is the Night" Is Show at Tivoli

On the Tivoli screen—"This Is the Night," a gay comedy romance spiced with lifting tunes and this great cast, including Danita Roland Young, Charles Ruggles, Thelma Todd and Cary Grant, new screen discovery. On the stage—Earl Hines and his Grand Terrace orchestra with his own cast of entertainers.

Joan Crawford At United Artists

In "Lety Lynton," now in its second week at the United Artists Theater, Joan Crawford and Robert Montgomery appear as modern American lovers fighting a dramatic battle to save their own romance.

The story is tense drama of the modern age, of society and intrigue, with an amazing dramatic climax in which the heroine faces the choice between prison and loss of her reputation.

Outstanding work is done in supporting roles by Nils Asther, who celebrates his return to the screen by giving a romantic and finished performance. Lewis Stone scores in the role of states' attorney.

"Lena Rivers" At McVickers

"Lena Rivers," a powerful drama of a young girl, who is born under a stigma of illegitimacy, is now at the McVickers Theater for a limited engagement. Woven through the main theme of the cruelty of clouded parentage to an innocent girl is a sweet love story between Charlotte Henry, who plays Lena Rivers, and Morgan Galloway as Durrie Belmont.

Charlotte Henry, seventeen year old actress, who scored such a triumph on the stage and screen in "Courage," enacts the role of Lena Rivers with extreme naturalness and gives a clear, convincing portrayal.

Ramon Navarro At The Chicago

"Huddle," a fascinating picture of college life with Ramon Navarro and Madge Evans in the leading roles, will be the feature attraction at the Chicago theater Friday, May 20.

Navarro portrays the role of a youth who worked his way up from the steel mills to a great University—only to find he had just begun his fight for recognition. He encounters numerous hardships at college, but overcomes this by making the football team and becoming its star player. Finding that the students and the girls that visit the school go out of their way to meet him, he becomes convinced up to the point where they actually avoid him. How he manages to overcome this, provides for one of the most thrilling and exciting climaxes ever seen on the talking screen.

On the stage Arthur "Pat" West heads a brilliant show, "Go of Joy in Bermuda." Arthur West is known as the fat boy of frivolity and he brings with him a brand new shroud of laughs, melodies, girls and gags and a host of entertainers.

Bing Crosby Returns To Oriental Stage

Due to insistent demands and hundreds of letters, Bing Crosby will return to the stage of the Oriental theater starting Friday.

Never before has the Oriental theater management heard such enthusiastic praise—so many demands for a return engagement—so many requests for more songs, more of that melody harmony that only Bing Crosby can provide. Bing has promised to devote his program entirely to requested numbers—so, if you want to hear your favorite song, write to Bing Crosby, care of the Oriental theater, and he will be happy to fulfill your request.

On the screen the powerful drama of circumstances which turned the home of a happily married young couple into a bedlam of tragedy, is told in "Night Court," which opens a week's engagement at the Oriental theater Friday, May 20.

The story, which is based on recent disclosures of political corruption in courts of law, depicts the web of intrigue and injustice which encircles a young taxi driver and his wife when they unwittingly

Red Wings and Maywood in 12 Inning Thriller

A game that started as if it were to be an easy victory for the Red Wings, ended as one of the most exciting and free hitting games ever to be played at the Red Wings ball park.

The Maywood Illini won in the 12th inning by the score of 14 to 9. Although the score was large and indicates a loosely played game, the fans who saw the game will agree that it was very well played until the last inning when Maywood managed to score five runs and win the game. As was announced in last week's write-up, the Red Wings this year are looking the strongest teams possible; and with an added week or two the new manager will have time to teach players the signals and a few other things that, although they are not apparent to the fans, have a lot to do in the making of a winning team. And now for the ball game.

The Red Wings took the lead in the 2nd when Pitzer was safe on an error, and scored on a long double by Schulenberg. They kept right on scoring in the 3rd on doubles by Willert and "Riggs" Swanson, and in the 4th on a triple by Diedrich and a sacrifice by Schulenberg to make the score 3 to 0 at the end of the 4th. Maywood was held to but one hit in the first four innings by "Peanuts," but managed to score three runs on two hits in the 5th. In the 6th Maywood tied the score at 4 to 4, when they scored two runs on three hits.

In their half of the 6th, the Red Wings again took the lead when they scored one run on a triple by Willert and a single by Bolte. In the 7th Maywood again tied the score when they scored one run on two hits to make the score 5 to 5.

Neither team was able to score in the 8th and 9th, but the 10th inning was a ball game in itself. In this inning the fans witnessed practically everything that makes baseball the interesting and enjoyable game that it is. Maywood started off the fireworks, when they got to "Peanuts" and started to hit his offerings freely, the first man singled, the next doubled, the next man walked, and the fourth man up, singled to score two runs and still have men on 1st and 3rd and nobody out. It was evident that "Peanuts" was weakening, so he was taken out and Tossman went in to pitch. Tossman retired the side, but only after two more runs had come in and a total of four runs had crossed the plate and Maywood on the large end of a 9 to 5 score. With the fans in despair but shouting words of encouragement to them, the Red Wings put on a grand rally and before the inning was over not only had tied the score but had the fans almost crazy with joy. Ben started it off with a single, Diedrich caught the Maywood infield asleep and beat out a bunt for a hit, Schulenberg walked filling the bases, Tossman gave the fans heart skip a beat when he doubled to score Ben and Diedrich. Brodman sent the fans wild with joy when he doubled to score Schulenberg and Tossman and tie the score 9 to 9. Dobbins got a scratch hit off the first baseman's glove and Brodman stopped at 3rd.

With a man on 1st and 3rd and nobody out, it looked as if the old ball game was all over, but the shouting, but the Maywood pitcher bore down and with the help of some snappy fielding, managed to get out of this tight hole by making the next two batters hit balls to the infielders, both times, eaching the runner sliding into home and then strike out the last batter to end the inning with a tied score of 9 to 9. In the 11th, Maywood had a good chance to score when the first man up got a triple, but Diedrich put a stop to this rally when he relieved Tossman and by some masterful pitching struck out the next three batters to come to bat, the man on 3rd base failing to score.

In the 12th, Maywood again put on a rally when they scored five runs on four hits and two errors to sew up the game, and although the Red Wings tried hard to put on another rally they were held in check by the Maywood pitcher and the game ended with the final score of 14 to 9. At this time the Red Wings again want to urge their fans and their friends to come out and watch them play and that (due to the moving to the city of the umpire of last year) they have been very fortunate in being able to get Mr. George Schaefer whom we all know to umpire the games for them this year; and that an umpire can make a good ball game is evidenced by the fact that both games Mr. Schaefer has umpired have gone through without an argument by either side; and by the statement the manager of the Maywood team made after the game, when he said that it was the squarrest deal they ever received from a visiting umpire.

Coming Games

On Thursday evening, May 19, the Red Wings will play the Married Men's team at the Red Wing grounds; the proceeds of this game to go to benefit of the relief fund. So come out, all you fans, and see the old timers in action, the game will start at 6:45. On next Sunday the Red Wings will play one of the strongest teams they will face this season, when the Berwood A. C., a team made up of graduates from Carl Schurz high school and college students, and considered one of the best near semi-pro teams on the northwest side of Chicago, will play at the Red Wings' ball grounds. The game starts promptly at 3 p. m.

Berwoods, Chicago, To Meet Red Wings, on Sunday, Heights Field

The Berwood Athletic Association Red Birds of Chicago, an aggregation of former high school and college stars, will meet the Arlington Heights Red Wings Sunday, May 22, at the latter's field.

The boys from Chicago, representing a club of six years standing, boast a record of three wins against one defeat for the present season. The three wins have been procured at the expense of the strong Norwood Park, P. J. Cullerton, and Warner-Moore Ford teams. The lone defeat was by a score of 11 to 8 by Willow Springs of the Midwest league.

The probable starting pitcher for the Red Birds will be Jacobs, formerly of Northwestern University, St. Louis Cards and Burlington, Iowa. Either Gordon or Shervett will receive.

Three former collegians will be seen in action in the Chicago infield. Kinch and Middell, both ex-Illinoisians, will be at second and short respectively. Goldsmith, a Northwestern product, will hold down the hot corner, Davey, formerly of the Nebraska State league, will share the initial sack duties with Betz.

The speed merchants of the team compose the outfield. Parks, Maringer, and Rohn are all consistent hitters and very fleet of foot. Maringer in particular is pounding the ball very hard as his .562 batting average for the season shows. Last Sunday against the P. J. Cullertons he pounded out two circuit smashes along with two other blows.

The probable starting lineup for the Berwoods against the Heights Red Wings will be: Rohn, rf; Goldsmith, 3b; McAvoy or Middell, ss; Parks, lf; Kinch, 2b; Maringer, cf; Gordon or Shervett, c; Davey or Betz, 1b; Jacobs, p.

MERLE GUILD POST

Another practice tryout for our indoor team will be next Monday, May 23, at the South Side ball park. We have a number of games under schedule and would like to have as many members as can come out that night, Monday, May 23, at about 7 p. m.

Illinois Bankers to Urge Revision of Banking Laws

"Revise Illinois banking laws in accordance with sound banking principles, and with due consideration for the welfare of business and the depositing public." This will be the united demand of the bankers of Illinois when they meet in their annual convention next week at Springfield.

Long before there were any clouds on the economic horizon, the bankers of Illinois went on record as favoring a new State banking act. However, their recommendations were not accepted. As a result, the banking laws of the state have been written not by bankers, but by others in public office who have lacked the banker's special knowledge and experience.

The responsibility for maintaining conditions of stability and security falls heaviest upon the shoulders of the banker who is earnestly and sincerely working for the good of the community.

Therefore, it is the contention of this association that the banker should be consulted and be given a part in writing a new State banking act which will provide the protection which every depositor has a right to expect.
